

ABSTRACT OF THE DISCLOSURE

The present invention provides a pharmaceutical composition and dosage form containing in combination a COX-II inhibitor and a muscle relaxant. The pharmaceutical composition is useful for the treatment of pain and pain related disorders and symptoms.

- 5 The combination provides an improved therapeutic response as compared to either drug alone. The pharmaceutical composition can be included in any dosage form.